

The American Journal of Psychiatry

Official Journal of the American Psychiatric Association

ajp.psychiatryonline.org

The American Journal of Psychiatry, the most widely read psychiatric journal in the world, is the journal that the overwhelming majority of psychiatrists considers essential.

About Us

The American Journal of Psychiatry's latest Impact Factor of 13.655 places this journal in the top 1% of the more than 12,000 scientific, technical, and medical journals for which this quality of research indicator is calculated. AJP also publishes research of great clinical relevance, as exhibited by the two AJP articles that Journal Watch Psychiatry announced in its top 10 psychiatry articles of clinical importance in 2018 and the three articles named by the Brain and Behavior Foundation in its list of the top 10 advancements and breakthroughs of 2018 (no other journal had more). This publishing for the field and for the future is why AJP was honored as one of the 100 most influential journals in all of biology and medicine.
