The Laryngoscope

The Laryngoscope, the official Journal of the Triological Society and the American Laryngological Society, has published continuously since 1890 and is the peer-reviewed journal of choice for general and subspecialty otolaryngologists and related healthcare practitioners. Each monthly issue includes original research and review papers, either clinically or research oriented, in Otolaryngology, Allergy/Rhinology, Cranial Base Surgery, Facial Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery, Head and Neck surgery, Laryngology, Otology and Neurotology, Pediatric Otolaryngology, Sleep Medicine, and Thyroid/Parathyroid. The Laryngoscope also includes papers presented at the Annual and Section Meetings of the Triological Society, as well as the popular "Triological Best Practice" articles, "How I Do It" articles, and Contemporary Reviews. The Laryngoscope provides critical and cutting edge information on the entire spectrum of Otolaryngology to a global readership of physicians, residents, and other research and clinical professionals with an interest in the field.
